ADMINISTRATION

TO THE GRADUATES OF 1992

As I write, we are in the midst of celebrations commemorating the 350th anniversary of the founding of our city, Montreal. Surely our happiest celebration during your five years at the Sacred Heart School was the opening of our new gymnasium. You, the class of 1992, are the first graduates to benefit from this great facility. More importantly, this new building is a witness to the qualities of sportsmanship, which build strength of character throughout our lives - loyalty, commitment, discipline and co-operation.

Are you remembering and will you remember to think before you speak and to think before you act? You are very dear "ducks" or do you prefer "creatures"? Thank you for all you have given of yourselves to your school. May the years ahead be good to you as you develop all that is best in you. Each one is tucked into my heart, count on my interest and my prayer.

Lovingly,

M. Johnson, R.S.C.J.

"Graduating is a myth because there is always another school waiting" It has been a good five years, where the good times and the friendships last forever. Thanx to all my friends for being there when I needed you. Diane, remember ski day. No Maria, I DON'T like the posters on your wall. LIZARD TONGUE! Angie, we were finally together for our last year! Remember LAMBADA and Mr. Kousik. Do you want to see some flakes? Thanx for everything. What about flappy feet? AMBITION: lawyer. "Carpediem", "So close yet so far away", "Beauty is truth and truth is beauty and that is all you need to know". Disecting in Biology class. Thanx to Mother Johnson and all my teachers. Thank you Mommy and Daddy, without your love and support I would have never made it. I LOVE YOU! "Time may pass and fade away, but the days we laughed and the days we cried, will always remain deep inside. Love and success to the GRADS OF 92!

Genevieve Bettinville

We've stumbled down the road together; sometime laughing; sometimes screaming; often dreaming; becoming wiser and growing up a little. Our school has been both a prison and a heaven. Thank you all for being my cellmates. The moments have slipped by so quickly but the memories will remain forever etched in my mind. I've learned more from my teachers than can be found in books. Thanks Ms Gendron and Mrs. Flynn for being both friends and inspirations. To my friends, Especially Anjum, Cindy, Marisa, Phoebe and Tanya: We've shared more deep conversations, comforting smiles and laughter pains than can be counted. To the field hockey team: Almost! Thanks Mom, Dad, Marina, Sandro and Elisa for your endless support and love. It's time now for us to turn our faces to the sun and discover our destinies. Let us "not follow the path way lay but go instead where there is no path and leave a trail." - Anon.

Live with HOPE. Hope for a wonderful today, hope for a better tomorrow. DREAM. If you can dream it, you can ACHIEVE it. Always LOVE. Love and respect everyone you meet, and they will love you back. GIVE. Give freely of yourself. Offer to the world your time, riches, love and effort. Give especially to those who need it most. LOOK. Look with open eyes to the problems of society, and do what you can to right them. Glance back at the past now and then, but never for too long, for the FUTURE WAITS WITH OPEN ARMS. The truth is, YOU CAN BE WHATEVER YOU WANT TO BE. YOU CAN CHOOSE WHATEVER YOU WANT TO CHOOSE. CHOOSE WISELY. Choose to be the best you can be. Choose your dreams. Don't ever let anyone hold you back. Live Lives of unselfishness, lives of laughter, of happiness. We are young, we are wonderful people, and we are just beginning our Lives. We make our future. MAKE IT WONDERFUL! THANKX to all my friends, teachers and family, for all the memories. #39

I'm graduating! It's been a great year. I'm going to miss my friends. I enjoyed the trip to Stratford, Ont. We had a successful sec V fair, our class of '92 is the best and is full of excitement. Some remarks of friends: Toki, music and singing, Adrianna, quite chilly and Rod Sterwart! Diane, Micheal Bolton! The computer classes, It doesn't work! The prefects of '92 have been great, they've worked so hard. Peggy a great househead, gets Trincano excited. Social Action, a great idea! Vanessa has taught me a lot. I'll remember Mr. Sauro, he made Sec 1 math fun, and all the teachers who have helped to get to sec V. I'll always remember you have to try, and to think positive and only then you can be a winner. Even the most impossible dreams can come true, so . . . say yes to your dreams!! P.S. Thank you Ms. Gendron for the Christmas M & M's.

Crissy-Pooh, couch potato, how are you? Your nicknames are not as weird and funny as mine. How did you come up with those ridiculous names? "Luppi" and "Lingua di Lucertola" are not the most exciting nicknames. Recall those throat lozenges? I was so embarrassed when Caroline saw IT all wrinkled. But NO, Cris had to laugh because it was too funny. That's right, Curly Sue, make fun of me. Everytime I feel sad, Cris comes along with her remedy called MAGIC WORDS. This remedy consists of Cris and three words. She always mentions "Fig Newtons", "Figidingolees" or "Spernocolees". Herculees, did you train, take your vitamins, and say your prayers on the morning of Dec. 3, 1991? What a day! The Italian flag was printed on my left knee. I have to admit; it was a very funny morning for both of us. Hey, Cris, remember LAMBADA! You were great! You, Maria Javier and Teresa Di Giovanni have been three of my best friends.

This is the time when memories cloud my mind. Memories that make me grateful to all who created them, like my mom, dad, BIG BRO, and my three sisters. I owe all of my family so much. My dad for his help every year with my geog project, Kathy with her Q-cards, Karen with her creative ideas, Frank my one and only BIG BRO, Hoda who is a miracle with her support, and of course my mother. Mom you have helped me mature, without you I would not be who I am today. NICK-NAME: Dinibinibumbum. Thank you to my animals Scamper, Jasper, Jasmine, Brazil, and Chelsy. The best of luck to all of my friends! Miche don't ever wear jeans on your back. DP stay wild. MTJ U R the sweetest pearson. Dag thanks for being an xtra special friend. Thanks Uncle Pete for being a fantastic person. You have all touched my life in a special way. Thank you and I love you all! Make the most of yourself for that is all there is to you. ACTIVITIES

Juvenile soccer champs

1992 G.M.A.A. CHAMPS!! The Juvenile Soccer Team enjoyed an outstanding year. Not only were we unbeaten in the regular season, but we finally overcame our archrivals, Trafalger, in the finals in a nailbiting overtime win. The championship was well deserved and we brought home the first soccer in Sacred Heart history. The team would especially like to thank our two great coaches, Mrs. Cumming and Mrs. McKenna. The secret of our success? Concentrate WIF FEEW-ING!

Back Row L to R: A. Abrigo, K. Kerklaan, A. Lebel, Mrs. McKenna, D. Neuheimer, Mrs. Cumming, S. Burney, P. Moore Ede, S. Sherriff, M. Welsh, G. Thirwell, T. delCampo, Front Row: T. Lefevre, K. Fitzpatrick, A. Gibbons, P. LeePoy, M. Millette, P. MacDonald

This year's celebration began with a theatrical interpretation of T.S. White's novel THE SWORD IN THE STONE.

The balloon popping ceremony was a welcomed edition to Dashabustadd. On the occasion of her 25th anniversary as headmistress, Mother Johnson was presented with "Stuart Bustadd", a giant balloon bearing the eight house mascots.

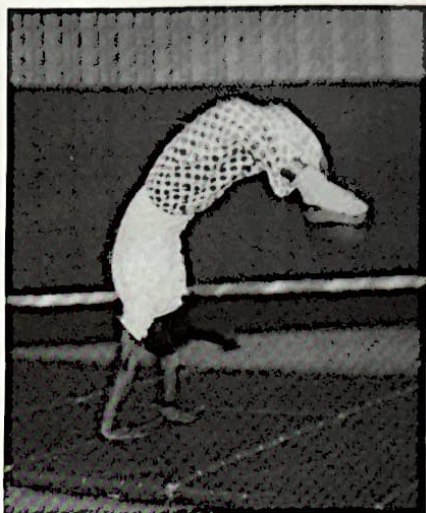

The morning was topped off with a talent show, which focused on television talk show hosts, and featured students from secondary I to V.

GYM DEMONSTRATION

This year, our gym demonstration took on a whole new look. For the first time ever, it was held in our new gymnasium. The theme was "Circus of the Stars". Watching the many clubs demonstrate their abilities, we were most impressed.

The Raging Hunger

It is a vivid vision,
I know all too well
Deep down inside,
My human shell
A film unrolls
Projects in me,
And there I see
My secret chamber.

I am
A neglected child Where hunger
Cannot be stilled,
Nor satisfied

On a strange barren street Where the ugly animal
Of hunger lives,
The wind blows fearlessly
With no mercy.

My heart beats rapidly.
As I see myself,
Searching in a bin
Like a helpless child,
In complete darkness.

As I looked In a frenzy,
Through the rusted bin
There is nothing In the bin
For a wondering soul With nothing but The will to live.

Pondering

Every day
I think of you

You call us just friends
But I want more than that You loved me once
But that love faded
How can I spark that love again

You said it wasn't me it was you but I find myself thinking trying to figure out what I did

I miss you so much
it's driving me crazy the fact that I'm not in your heart

I want to let go but my hands are glued

Whenever your name is said
my interest peaks
I am happy
then I ponder and sadden.

Life is a puzzle,
with millions of pieces,
no one doubled.
Each person is a piece,
the people you meet,
help you complete,
the puzzle that is designed especially for you Your life is unique there's no other like you.

Teacher

If I gave you my hand, where would you take me?
I would take you to the highest mountain
So that you may touch the stars and capture their brilliance.
I would take you deep into the heart of the woods
So that you may listen to the trees and find in the forest your sanctum.
I would take you to the greenest fields
So that you may be shielded from the brutality of mankind
And seek beauty in the miracles of nature
I would take you to the four corners of the world
So that you may find, discover, explore, digest
And drink all that it has to offer
And until then I will not let go of your hand.

Deep Purple

There was no rain that night,
just a heavy mist,
that seemed to take in,
everything in its path.
It made the place,
that was so familiar,
look like a different world.
From under the old maple tree,
I looked up at your house.
The white marble steps,
glistened in the pale moonlight.
I know I should not,
have come over here,
to watch your house in the moonlight, but something,
called me to it.
I think of all the rooms,
in your house, each,
holding a treasure,
from your travels.
Each, holding a tiny secret,
from your past.
You fascinate me, you are,
intriguing and mysterious.
I am curious to know more about you.
Every time I get close enough,
you put up a wall.
To hide yourself,
from the world.
Is it because you've been,
hurt by some loved one,
in the past and don't, want to take the chance again?
Please, trust me.

Somewhere

We sit in a circle,
Quiet and reflectful,
Thinking of the past, present, and future,
Where we've been, are, and going,
Together or separate
Will always be together,
Somewhere.

We look around at our friends
And think:
Its almost over,
The best time of our lives
Then we'll all fade into our memories
And become shadows in our hearts, mind, and soul.
But we'll always be there,
Somewhere.

The time to go is coming.
So we'll enjoy the time we have,
As short as it may be Then, with many tears and heavy hearts, We'll say good-bye.
And promise to keep in touch.
With tears in our eyes Overflowing and streaming down our cheeks
Will say: see ya soon.
But in our hearts we'll say:
Goodbye old friend, and good luck.
I hope you have a happy life Because you know
We'll never see each other again.
Our life together is over.
We've had the best years of our lives.
Sometimes it's been rocky.
Sometimes it's been happy.
And one day we'll look out a window
Over the world (and life itself)
And say:
We're out there, our old selves, our memories.
We're out there,
Somewhere.

The Flashback

Take time to sit down And reflect just awhile
Of the lengthy, torrid roads that stretched on for miles

Of the honey sweet breeze that blew o'er the grass Recollect all the Sundays that you went to mass

Sit back and relax
it'll give you a chance Your very first dance,
Your very first glance

At your very first love and your very first kiss Your very first friend is the one you now miss

Ease up and remember the times of your past
'Cause today just might be your own very last.

Cristina Zampieri V

I know as the years go by,
We all have made friends,
And lost others.
No matter when or how long
You have had them as friends, They'll be the friends whom You spent part of your life with.
They need not be out of school,
Or just some classmates you learn with.
Everyone has those days,
When you feel out of it,
And a friend comes around to cheer you up,
To make your gloomy day bright.
These are the friends
You have to say goodbye to,
And whom you'll miss,
When we graduate this year.
You may be happy that you are free,
But that's not all,
When you graduate,
You leave a piece of you behind,
This year, 1992, we're the graduates,
And we're leaving our friends,
To go our separate ways,
And to keep all the memories we've had together,
In a special place for friends,
In the book we call
The Memory Book.

UNTITLED

The clock ticks
The faint echo
Resounds throughout
The silent room
How strange it is to be alone
With oneself
Now I must Really Face myself, Face reality.
It scares me
It haunts me it was hidden Raw and uncovered Until I could
No longer ignore
it. But now I find it is gone and empty
the hollowness is everpresent
But now I know it exists
And what is known can be understood In Time.

A Safe World?

I found myself sitting on a rock,
hear the dock.
Where two birds flew over my yacht,
I imagined I was part of the flock.
I felt safe and free,
With plenty of glee.
All of a sudden my thoughts were interrupted.
To my dismay, one of the birds fluttered,
down into the river.
As I turned my head, my heart quivered.
To my surprise, I saw a man with a gun in his hand,
With swirling smoke spiralling.

Personal Thoughts

I sit here-
alone, deserted and full of hatred.
The bruises on my body,
now dominate my life.
I should have been,
more careful.
I should have left.
I had to let him know how I felt,
but I kept things to myself-a deeply rooted animosity engulfed me.
I killed him.
I sit here-
alone, deserted and full of hatred in prison . . .

SILENCE PLEASE - SOMEONE IS DYING

She is a victim
"Why?" you say
Because of her blackness,
Because of her race,
Because of her creed,
Because of her religion
She is slowly being dissolved in your incivility
She is silently melting,
She and the others, these people of unique beauty,
these human beings born of God.

Never Again

Today was yesterday's end, Tomorrow is today's beginning.
The emotions that I sent you Are slowly disappearing.

It was a search for love From which I could only find this simple, foolish game that played with my mind.

I looked at this word love
In a completely different way.
But you seem to take advantage Of every single day.

Therefore, my very last words to a so called faithful friend Are that I will truly love you
. . . Never Again

Michele Veloso V

Our dreams won't always Be blinded
By the haze of our limitations.
Grasp the harness of life,
And watch us ride the sky.
Nothing could come between us.
Love is eternal.

MEMORY BOOK COMMITTEE

This year's Memory Book clan has lived in a perpetual state of anxiety. From cropping photos to improving our typing, we learned so much. Without the help of so many and great editors, I don't think we could have survived! I want to especially thank my mom and dad for all your support. Mother Johnson, thank-you for boosting our sales in the eleventh hour!

Sacred Heart will never be like any other school and we tried our best to capture the spirit, the memories, and the smiles. Thank you all for being part of it.

Sincerely,
Sara Ingram

Dedication to the Graduates of 1992
 This is your song
 To you shall it be given
 All that you pursue with devotion and truth That your ways be just Honouring the right of all others to be That through adversities and misfortune Your soul not be jaded But instead be lifted to higher might That concern for the stranger
 And the deepest regard for the other Always stand above all needs That your ignorance, apathy and fears Starve for lack of any nourishment
 And that your mind and heart work together, Towards the ideal.

All this, so that you may sing your song
 And for you, all this, my prayer.
